

Special Education in Pennsylvania

2021-2022

Special Education Enrollment for School Age Students by Disability Category

Source: December 1, 2021 Child Count

The 2021-22 statewide total of students with disabilities is 313,618 or 18.6% of the total enrollment in Pennsylvania.

Indicator 1 Graduation Rates

Source: July 2022 Exiting Collection

87.52%

of Pennsylvania
students with disabilities graduate from high school.

Indicator 2 Dropout Rates

Source: July 2022 Exiting Collection

11.96%

of Pennsylvania
students with disabilities drop out of high school

Indicator 4 Suspension and Expulsion Rates

Source: 2022 Table 9A Discipline Collection of students with disabilities are suspended or expelled for greater than ten days.

0.54%

Indicator 11 Initial Evaluations

Source: 2022 Table 8A Annual 91.00%

of initial evaluations completed within 60 days of parental consent

Indicator 13 Post-Secondary Transition Goals

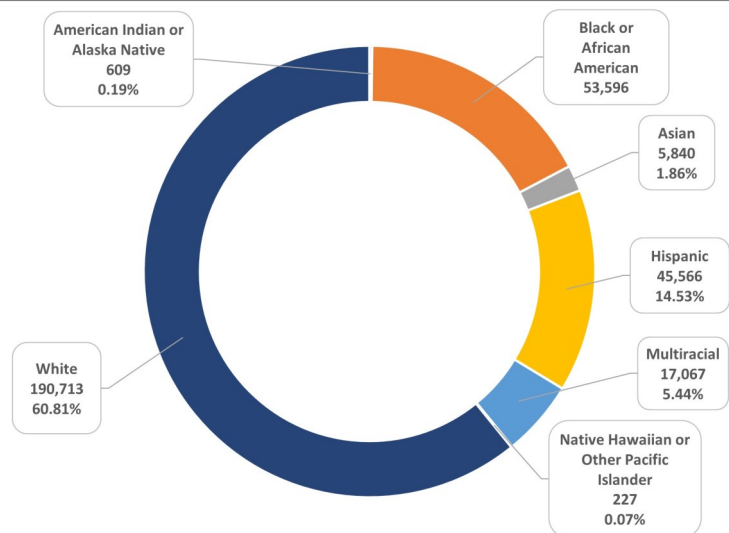

Source: Cyclical Monitoring Data 2021-2022

84.99%

compliance found during onsite monitoring for eight specific secondary transition requirements

Special Education Enrollment for School Age Students by Race/Ethnicity

Source: December 1, 2021 Child Count

Educational Environments Ages 6-21, Age 5 in School Age Programs

Source: December 1, 2021 Child Count

Indicator 14 Postsecondary Education/Employment

Source: 2022 Post-School Outcome Survey Results

Enrolled in higher education	23.91%
Enrolled in higher education or competitively employed	71.87%
Enrolled in higher education, some other postsecondary education/training program, or competitively employed	76.09%